POLI AIRONE ROSSO APERITIVO VENETO

Toni Poli (1919-2001) had a dream, in 1951 he finally realized it: he left onboard his moto Guzzi Airone Sport 250cc and reached Cape North.

After 10.000 km of adventures, he returned home. The party in town began with the aperitif created for the occasion, red like the Airone.

This real story inspired the ending of the tv series "Di padre in figlia".

AIRONE ROSSO Aperitivo Veneto

Aperitif liqueur with Vermouth and natural infusion of spices and aromatic herbs.

Its aroma recalls a red roses bouquet surrounded by tangerines and red oranges.

Adventurous and fresh as a motorbike ride while the sun sets on the horizon.
